RE: E2 Billing Solutions LLC

Dear Sir/Madam:

Do not think twice. E2 is the billing service you want to use.

If that sounds effusive and enthusiastic, it is meant to. What E2 has been able to accomplish in old and new billing collections, reduction in staff hours, and unburdening me of the overwhelming daily tasks involved with billing and collections far outweigh any remuneration they may receive for their services. I say this as a twenty year practicing Podiatrist with three offices with multiple installations and services that would otherwise be impossible to track and collect all owed revenues.

I also know from whence I speak since I had previously tried two other billing services; both whom were impersonal, inefficient, ineffective, and did not care to track down money for my business as if it was their own; E2 does this.

I must say I take some pride in the accomplishments of E2 given that both Eleni and Evi have previously worked for me in all aspects of my Podiatric practice other than billing. It was out of sheer desperation that I asked them to take over the Billing and Collections Department approximately eight years ago, at which point things changed dramatically for the positive. My collections, revenues, cash flow, etc. increased and became more fluid; whereas my previous losses due to timely filing problems, lack of appeal time, energy, and knowledge were all eliminated and converted into profit. I think the experience that they gained not only in billing but also working in all fields of my practice give them an edge in running the billing service especially in Podiatry, Physical Therapy, NCV, EMGs, DME, etc. Bottom line: they know the business from the ground up.

Once Eleni and Evi found their niche, they naturally decided to turn it into their own business; while adding other clients to their roster, E2 continues to take care of all my billing needs and issues. The only other qualification anyone would want from a billing service is honesty, integrity, and fast friendly service. Again E2 delivers on this front as well.

If you want an effective and technologically advanced billing service that is going to treat your business with a hands-on approach, E2 is the service for you. You will see your revenues and profits increase immediately and your headaches diminish exponentially.

Best of luck. If I can be of any further assistance, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,
